

PROBATION

Weekly reporting to your probation officer is required by all participants in person. If you are employed full-time (40 Hours per week) you may report to your probation officer by other means rather than in person. Speak to your probation officer to arrange phone contact, faxing your paycheck stub, and/or other methods of reporting.